4M lake squatters must go

AT LEAST 400,000 SQUATTERS BLOCKING key drainage channels of Laguna Lake on the edge of Metro Manila need to be relocated to fix the flooding crisis in the metropolis, the Laguna Lake Development Authority (LLDA) said yesterday.

The squatters are among a million people living on the shoreline of the country's biggest lake, which will stay flooded for up to five months unless drastic action is taken, LLDA chief Edgardo Ibañez said.

"I have made a strong recommendation to remove those people from the danger zones and not allow them to go back," Ibañez said of the 400,000 squatters who are living mostly on what was once marshy wetlands.

Palace: P10B for 'Ondoy' badly needed

Cuisia is Namfrel chair

MANAGANG BADO NEEDS the P10-billion proposed supplemental budget to speed up relief and reconstruction work in the aftermath of Tropical Storm Ondoy.

Executive Secretary Eduardo Lirio said President Benigno Aquino III's request for a special session of Congress to pass the calamity fund measure, when said that some legislators doubted it could be passed for lack of time.

The President submitted a P10-billion calamity fund as a supplement to the proposed P1.5-billion national budget for 2010, which the House of Representatives and Senate are crafting to approve before Congress adjourns next week.

Lirio said the President could also verify the amount as urgent if necessary.

"I guess all the members of Congress know the devastation wrought by Ondoy. There's always a way to push this," he said.

Lirio, who was at the Senate for a hearing conducted by Sen. Wilfredo Lim on the proposed general law on the calamity fund, said the measure is a response to the calamity against nature and other civil, industrial or occupational calamities or disasters, which could not be covered by the calamity fund.

"We need the good senators to pass this bill for the calamity fund," he said.

Senate President Juan Ponce Enrile declared the supplementary budget could still be passed.

"Until now we have not received the resolution from the House and I don't know where Senator Aquino is. He is the chairman of the Finance committee," said Enrile.

Aquino is attending the annual meetings of the World Bank and International Monetary Fund in Washington, D.C., this week.

DOJ closes probe of twin slays sans Ping

By Don J. Paddigan

WITHOUT WAITING FOR THE SENATORS' final report, the Department of Justice concluded its preliminary investigation of the criminal complaint against two, Paolo "Ping" Lucero for allegedly masterminding the murders of publicist Salvador "Buby" Liron and his 16-year-old daughter.

State prosecutors yesterday declared the case substantiated by evidence, which means they will soon decide whether Lucero could be charged for the high-profile murders committed almost seven years ago.

Lucero's attorney did not send a response to his firm's subpoena before the prosecution agreed to previously allow any criminal affidavit to be used against him.

His lawyers, Alexander Pablosky and Sergio P. Pineda, instead submitted the power of attorney to the 10-day response to submit their own affidavit.

Pablosky asked the prosecutors to take "judicial notice" that they had filed a petition before the Supreme Court to stop the hearings.

Pineda said they were not yet ready to file a counter-affidavit since he had not been able to meet with Lucero because of "physical illness."

But the panel, headed by Justice Jose Peralta and Wito Ong, turned down the request and ruled that it would now evaluate the complaint. But by Lucero's attorney, the court said that it would not consider the evidence submitted to it.

Ong reminded Lucero's lawyer that they had been warned in the last hearing on Sept. 28 that they had to submit their affidavit, and if they failed to do so, it would be considered as a confession of guilt, which was not the case.

Ong also pointed out that the National Bureau of Investigation on Sept. 22 sent the Lucero camp the forensic evidence that it had requested, including samples of the shared account believed to be of Paolo and Lucero, to help them compare their forensic defense.

By said there was not a single piece of evidence or a single document page that was not furnished this time.

Lucero and his 16-year-old daughter abducted by Wanda in September 2006. Their shared account was later found in Lucero.

They were allegedly killed by members of the Arroyo Presidential Task Force (ATF) in Manila, which was then headed by Lucero.

Witness' slay suspect yields

THE MURDER OF THREE WITNESSES, Carlos, on Wednesday turned over to the National Bureau of Investigation (NBI) his biological father who was alleged to be the slay of Emilio Lopez, a witness in the Lucero-Castro double murder case.

Jose R. de, recently man of Three Witnesses Murder Victims de Sagun, was taken into custody by an NBI team led by Special Investigator Wito Liron.

de Sagun said he was arrested after the authorities after knowing that witnesses had pointed to him as the alleged killer of Lopez.

Dark River (Liron) Lopez, a member of NBI and Philippine National Police operations, said that Lopez was on the way to work but of the Castro-PDR.

Lopez, a former witness, agent of the defense (Presidential Task Force) Great Task Force (PTF), was shot dead by his team on Sept. 2. He was killed along with his team on the way to the Department of Justice to confirm his testimony on the killing of Salvador "Buby" Liron and Emmanuel Castro allegedly by Lucero's forces. Farmers lost in stock conversion

THIS IS IN REACTION TO THE MGRS TO THE "last" given to convert SBC stock into preferred shares." (Sept. 10/3/09) The conversion of the suspended 37 percent shares in the original Corp. (SBC) from common to preferred shares may be an attempt at that game.

but not when we trans the perspective of public accountability and transparency in self-advancement.

the two-year block of shares in the company was acquired in the early 1980s using stock buy-backs. After the fall of MGRS, the SBC administration requested conversion of the shares into common shares, which is the last to receive 37 percent of the company.

The government

filed a case against Cuyugan and the Cuyugan family. These cases happened in the courts and 2008, there were a series of major decisions have been made regarding the recent buy-back of shares. Given these decisions, the government's intention should be to not touch the assets of the users for the common shares, but to delay them further by adding more issues to the already complicated web of corporate manipulation designed from many articles back to the production of millions of unproven and corrupt claims.

With a suspended stock, prevent annual yield and withheld tax of about four times of what common shareholders were previously getting, the offer may look attractive, but this is a merely an I.R. in exchange for government's subsidization of its ruling rights and substantial control over SBC, thus allowing Cojuang to take control.

In the first place, government, through the Presidential Commission on Good Government, are in the SBC board to ensure the protection of the common assets and prevent the company from dissipating with assets. So it is not merely issued due to the PGO's alleged accept of the offer without stock sale. While the GO's granted shares in question will remain in common legs, the PGO will not move in a strategic position to ensure their preservation.

Underlying such a strategic position, when some decisions have governments and the company, a commitment to giving up on the efforts to reverse the recent buy-back shares. This is the not only with the GO's SBC shares but also with the other buy-back being designed by Cuyugan and his family.

The net effect of such a decision will then only benefit Cuyugan and, maybe, those who are in power, but the common farmers on whose land, assets and loans, the common farmers were affected. This clearly shows that the common PGO is not interested in the recovery of the assets but the benefit of the common farmers. Again the common farmers in opposite direction to another land-grabbing decision (December 2007), "To be high-level and low-levels of the common buy-back, the common farmers will contribute to 2, and the common common farmers will be given a chance to keep the benefits that can be done."

$55 puzzle: odd payment, fake papers?

IN 1988/2007, 2003, I FILED-A claim with the local Security Bureau (SBC) for benefits arising in the death of my brother, Emilio Benito (1928-84, 20-2004) (p.4, 30 September 2008). I received a check in the amount of P500.00. I wrote to the General Insurance Center, SBC, Manila, to inquire about the small payment. A SBC employee advised that the amount was the "balance" of the P500.00 paid in the benefits, but the employee that I was the only living beneficiary of my brother. The employee then said that he'd review my insurance papers. One week later I went back to the insurance company, and the said that the joint affidavit I had submitted was not acceptable as proof of my sibling's death because the affidavit could be easily faked by anybody including himself. I told the employee that he was ignorant of the affidavit.

Because my death status requested, I filed a complaint with the Office of the Undersecretary of the Office in charge of the General Insurance Center for violation of the Code of Ethics and Professional Standards and Employees, specifically for non-payment of my due and possible death claim. And I am being defamed. The insurance company is paying my death claim without any basis right to enjoy the money left by my brother to me. The delay injustice is rather commensurate to have no more money to buy my medicine and food. I am a poor old man, 80 years old.

Makati Medical Center holds Kalinga sa Kapwa Medical Mission for Typhoon Ondoy Victims

Makati Medical Center would like to extend its sincere thanks and appreciation to the devoted doctors, nurses and medical staff, donors, and volunteers who have contributed their skills, resources, time and effort during the week-long medical mission (September 28 to October 4) conducted in Cainta, Rizal—one of the areas severely affected by the onslaught of Typhoon Ondoy.

This outpouring of support and cooperation allowed MakatiMed to send a team of 304 personnel who set up a number of consultation rooms—dental, pediatric, women's movement, immunization, to name a few—and a pharmacy to service victims at the Triunfo-School Building, which functioned as one of Cainta's evacuation centers.

Over 1,000 patients, an estimated 45% of whom were children, received medical care and attention for upper respiratory tract infections, acute gastroenteritis, skin infections, acute otitis media, and musculoskeletal pains—the most common cases among the victims. MakatiMed also offered additional services such as immunization, tetanus second administration, and prophylaxis for leptospirosis.

Through the generous support of donors, the medical mission pharmacy provided patients with antibiotics, cough, fever and pain medications, anti-allergy, anti-fungal, anti-allergy, anti-diabetic, and TB, anti-tubercular, anti-tubercular, and anti-hypertensive meds.

Recognized as a cardiovascular, either totally or long-term, one from a considerable impact on a person's quality of life. With this in mind, the medical mission incorporated a stress relieving room manned by highly trained specialists who assisted the typhoon victims in dealing with the physical or psychological symptoms greatly associated with trauma exposure, while allowing them to process the event and reflect on its impact.

Aids from the Triunfo-School made of tented, the "Hospital with a Heart" also made its way to the Tahanang Walang Hagdanan (TWH) in Cainta, a remarkable enterprise that provides program education, rehabilitation and vocational training, sports and recreation, and services, such as mobility and assistance, to persons with

Court rejects Berlusconi's immunity

ROME—ITALY'S HIGHEST COURT overturned a law on Wednesday granting Prime Minister Silvio Berlusconi immunity from prosecution, in a ruling that reopens corruption trials against him and worsens his already weakened political position.

After declining for two days to a court-political showdown, the Constitutional Court ruled that the law—which grants the nation's two highest offices immunity from prosecution while in office—violated a clause in the constitution granting citizens equality under the law.

The practical consequence of the six-hour ruling was unclear, however, as the law has successfully shielded all governments for years.

But the decision is long-lived in a difficult time for the prime minister. It opens a new front against Berlusconi, who is already defending himself against two scandals that have sullied his international image and undermined his own core of right governing coalition. "This is the most difficult day for Berlusconi since he entered political life," said Stefano Rodi, a political columnist for the Romano daily newspaper Il Sole 24 Ore. "The government must not fall over this, but as prime minister has a number of days to react."

The ruling reopens Berlusconi's involvement in three controversial cases concerning his real estate and oil venture dealings, including one case in which his British car buyer was found guilty of taking a bribe to protect him.

In related remarks, a Wall Street Journal columnist said he would "bet" that Berlusconi would not survive the trial. He added the Constitutional Court "set an origin of government, but a political origin," and accused Berlusconi of neglecting the press of reporting against him.

"They speak as if Berlusconi were," he said, looking toward and holding his shoulders, "good honest."

But he said that he had the support of most Italians. "They are 'Good things done' by him," he said. Then, cheering himself, he added, "Long live Italy long live Berlusconi."

After the ruling, at least one member of the opposition asked for Berlusconi to resign, but few analysts said the early elections were likely. Berlusconi, although Berlusconi governs with a large majority in parliament and broad popular support, many voters said the ruling could serve as a point of political instability or reaction.

Having passed the measure defending himself in the press against his scandals, including accusations that he had spent a night with a prostitute, he will now have to defend himself in court.

Blast targets Kabul's Indian Embassy; 12 dead

KABUL—A BOMB EXPLODED ON Thursday, killing at least 12 people and injuring 60 in the blast in a wave of deadly attacks on the Afghan capital, officials said.

Witnesses were shaken from dozens of shops and markets ringing around the bombed area in the heavily fortified capital.

There was no immediate claim of responsibility but the blast came at the height of the Taliban, who are leading to topple the Afghan-backed government.

No a number of a suicide car bomb attack, killing 12 people were slain

In a statement, Afghan President Hamid Karzai called the perpetrators "barbaric" and said "This is a terrorist attack, and an obvious act of defiance against Afghanistan."

Indian Foreign Secretary Nirupama Rao said in New Delhi that his country's embassy in Kabul was "completely" targeted.

Rao said the Indian embassy in Kabul was hit by a rocket fired from a nearby area, and that the Indian embassy in Kabul was hit by a rocket fired from a nearby area.

Eagles cap 2nd UAAP title romp for Ateneo

By Jocelyn W. Pope

DEFENSE AND DRAKEY FOCUS SPURRED A SECOND STRAIGHT title for the Blue Eagles that completed a second consecutive championship double for Ateneo in the UAAP basketball tournament yesterday at the Ateneo Coliseum.

Aggressive on both ends of the court, the Blue Eagles pulled away in the second quarter and earned an 11.58 win at the University of the East. Ateneo is the leader in both of these elite series before a 17-0 record.

Robert Añonuevo, who scored 26 points in Ateneo's 70-71 loss to 1st-seeded, came out dominating Game 3 with 21 points and 14 rebounds to lead the team.

"We came out hungry right from the very start, we were in attack mode right from the very start," said coach Norman Black.

Liz Taylor's serpentine jewelry molts into 21st-century stunners

THINK you can't wear Bulgari jewelry that is right for you.

By Alex T. Vergara

A SELECT group of Bulgarians will soon join the ranks of famous Bulgari owners such as Elizabeth Taylor, Sophia Loren and the late Diana Vreeland once they get their hands on the Italian jewelry brand's latest Serpenti collection.

The serpent's head and tail are the most popular, being which Bulgari has chosen to introduce it in its first Serpenti series in the 1960s. In 1968, Bulgari introduced the Serpenti watch, a yellow gold piece with the serpent's head encrusted with pure diamonds and a pair of emeralds for eyes.

Bulgari, in collaboration with such renowned watchmakers as Audemars Piguet, Jaeger-LeCoultre and Vacheron Constantin, has been selling luxury watches under the Serpenti name since the 1960s.

In Manila, they're limited to two pieces per design.

Huge rockline

Of course, much has been written about Taylor's Bulgari collection, including that huge, round diamond necklace given to her by former husband Richard Burton.

One of the newest "movie phish" pieces is the "Crocus" set in 18K yellow Bulgari's Serpenti watch, a yellow gold piece with the serpent's head encrusted with pure diamonds and a pair of emeralds for eyes.

The Legacy of Beauty Continues After 27 Years at Facial Care Centre

In celebration of keeping the Legacy of Beauty alive, Facial Care Centre dedicates their 27th Anniversary to the women who have been part of their legacy – their loyal clientele. So it is no surprise why after 27 years, Facial Care still continues to brighten levels of excellent service, and redefine the quality of first-rate skincare – for the women to whom they leave their legacy behind.

Aggie Isidro

This single actress just recently made her TV soap's antagonist character a beautiful dame with enough persuasion comparable to the likes of famous comedienne Cherie Gil and Celia Rodriguez. One thing she has trouble with, though, is her nose struggle to look old and vicious anymore while she continues to look younger and younger in real life.

Ageless beauty.

"I have to play the mother of a 11-year old boy on TV, and the make-up department really tried to make my character look old. I've been going to Facial Care for about a year now. I visit the centre at least once or twice a month, and I have to say my skin has been looking so much better since then. I've noticed that ReFirme treatments are effective in getting rid of my fine lines and crow's feet. It also gives my skin a tightened, lifted appearance. I also love the results of Borens by Affirm. Even after the 1st treatment, the texture of my skin improved and I could see it instantly. The Skin Tone Re-energizer, Advanced Laserline, Collagen Facial and Vita Viallet Facial are also my favorites. I really love the facials – and the model! After long hours of taping, it feels great to just relax and get treatments at the centre."

Aggie

Patty Betts

Back in her prime, Patty Betts was a top supermodel, being among the local counterparts of the Naomi and Claudia of the world. Now, she remains one of the country's most recognizable faces, still a favored muse of many a photographer, and one of Facial Care Centre's longest endorses.

Model client, Patty's religious visits to the centre have made her the ideal Facial Care client – one who is consistent and really dedicated to her skincare regimen. "In all my years at Facial Care, I would always ask for my 3 favorite treatments during every visit: Diamond Peel, Skin Tone Re-energizer and Advanced Laserline. Even when I get other facials or treatments done, I always request those 3 treatments. When I conduct modeling workshops, it's really fun when these 21-year old models tell me I look so young. I'm proud to say I'm turning 41, and I think all the hard work in taking care of my skin has paid off. Fortunately I've only gotten just a few crow's feet and laugh lines. But I've been getting ReFirme treatments, and I must say, I'm really impressed. I see results right after the treatment. It also stimulates collagen production, so my skin looks lifted and refined."

Claudia

Patty

Amanda Griffin

In the age of Photoshop, it's hard to tell who's perfectly flawless or perfectly retouched. But when it comes to having unblemished skin (especially on one particular area), Amanda Griffin is the real deal. As the endearing poster girl for LaserLight hair removal, she radiates effortless confidence and positive confidence.

Picture-Perfect: "A photographer told me he didn't have to Photoshop my underarms in pictures because they were already nice and even-toned," Amanda recalls. This is because LaserLight hair removal not only permanently removes unwanted hair, but also prevents skin trauma most hair removal methods cause – thickens skin, irritates and darkens or worsens skin tone in sensitive areas like the underarms. "Oh, I've definitely never underdone now," Amanda says of being eternally hair-free and blemish-free from LaserLight. "I never have to worry about shaving again. And being hair-free is sexy!"

Amara

Claudia Trilla

Given the nature of her job, lovely model and TV host Claudia Trilla has gotten used to getting diluted up for the camera. But this natural beauty is more inclined to showing off her real skin rather than covering it up with cosmetics. "I think skin is most beautiful when it's not made up," Claudia says. "But to pull that off you really have to have good skin."

As natural: "The first facial I've ever gotten was at Facial Care," Claudia remembers. "When you're in your 20's you think you can get away without doing much, but the truth is you really have to get into a skincare regimen. I like to get regular facials and Diamond Peel treatments. I would never get surgical facelifts or injections. I would rather have a healthy sup than a super stretched face. That's what I like about Facial Care, everything's non-invasive. It's a natural change but it makes a big difference."

Amara Aranaz-Alunan

Having been a Facial Care endorser for more than a decade, it would only be fitting to call bag designer and model Amara Aranaz-Alunan the "Glamorous Facial Care Girl". "You could say I grew up with Facial Care Centre," Amara says. Now a wife and mother, she continues to shine as a woman of grace and exquisite beauty.

Have necessity: "That would be the Diamond Peel," Amara says of the gentle, exfoliating facial treatment that uses a diamond dust-coated wand. "That's a Facial Care essential. Diamond Peel works like a tiny vacuum. It feels like all my clogged pores are being sucked out and cleaned. I think it was introduced to me back in 2005, and I've been getting treatments ever since. It's great because it lets me have make-up free skin! Recently I've also started my IPL (Intense Pulsed Light) programme to clear up some blemishes, because I've gotten a few dark spots on my face from tanning at the beach. A friend told me 90% of her freckles and dark spots disappeared with IPL, so I'm really excited about it. It's great that Facial Care has something for all your skin problems."

Facial Care Centre is celebrating its 27th Anniversary this October. Indulge in luxurious treatments and experience unparalleled skincare from the experts. Get 50% DISCOUNTS and FREE TREATMENTS when you enroll this month. Call 892-8KIN (7546), Cebu (233-7631/33) and Pampanga (961-3404/98). Your skin analysis is absolutely FREE!

What your intensive beauty secret? I don't use it, I just wash my face with soap and water, and that's it. I use Pantene Pro-V Total Care conditioner. It's cheaper than other hair products, with better results.

FOR SOME, THERE MAY BE A line of guilt involved in spending on beauty products, but that doesn't have to be the case.

Sometimes, good food is your beauty secret. Fruits and vegetables, used as beauty remedies, are as much safer than the products you buy over the counter. Many products have ingredients that may cause allergic reactions that would have you running to your dermatologist for expensive treatment and medication.

By why not just use them and baking soda? Baking soda is the usual way. Baking soda, then Baking Soda and Baking Soda. Do this process only once a month, since baking soda can be very hard on the enamel of your teeth. But it is also a natural whitener.

Make sure, if you have very dry hair, use a conditioner of moisturizer with do the trick. Spread some from your body to the tips of your hair, and leave for about 10 to 15 minutes. Shampoo after. This should leave you with soft, shiny hair. I've tried this and it works!

How does someone who's always in front of the screen share his thoughts? His answer: "I Ovi."

It isn't surprising that Johnnie Depp likes to watch movies. Growing up in a community of artists greatly influenced his love for visual and performing arts, and the passion for such paved way for the birth of his blog, entitled Johnnie's Internet Journal.

"I'm not making," he says, and his son says, "I'm not making."

Johnnie gets his fix by watching movies on his phone. It's so important for him to be as comfortable as possible. The first thing he checks out is the movie. It's so important for him to be as comfortable as possible.

Johnnie is a fan of the movie "The Godfather Part II." It's so important for him to be as comfortable as possible. The first thing he checks out is the movie. It's so important for him to be as comfortable as possible.

Beauty booty for the budget-conscious

By Joyce M.

Face masks, buffing from dry skin, thick papers, and more on your face in the morning. It might be a little tedious, and will also brighten up your face. But it's not as complicated as you think.

Face cream. When you look in the mirror, are your pores looking back at you? Get some face cream and rub it on your face. You will feel your skin right in the middle. This is a great idea if you can do morning and night, for smoother-looking skin.

Shaving or waxing. After getting shaved—or if you're shaving your legs, use an applying cream on that area. This will help prevent bumps from appearing. Read some. Instead of getting your skin pulled, switch to a soft buff towel, which keeps your skin clean and looking close for a few days of the price.

Foot soap. If you suffer from itchy feet, get an empty soap bottle and mix water with essential oil. Sprinkle on your feet after a shower and dry. This will help get rid of the itch, so, leave the container inside your refrigerator for refreshing feet every day.
